June 2019

Notice for all pupils and parents of the George St Centre

Saturday, June 29th is the last for this term and we usually share the progress of our ensembles and orchestras in two short concerts to be held in the George St School Hall.

The concert at 10:00am on will feature items by the Symphonic Band and the Training Orchestra. These groups will go to their rehearsal as usual (9:40) and then be seated in the hall at 10am. This concert ends around 10:30.

The concert at 11:30am today will feature items by the Junior Symphonia, Recorder Consort, Guitar Ensemble and Community Orchestra. This concert should be over by 12:30pm.

Everyone is invited to be part of the audience at no cost.

Most classes will continue as normal. Any other changes will be notified by individual teachers.

A reminder please for those driving inside the school grounds that all pedestrians need to feel safe. A speed of no more than 10kph is usual in such spaces.

We thank everyone for their efforts this term and wish all our pupils a relaxing holiday in April.

We welcome you all back for Term Three on Saturday, July 27th.
